

Frequency-domain redundancy test: the linear measure finds ZZ redundant on both systems;
the new-frequency measure separates them

ZZ residual-power fraction ($1 - R^2$)

Linear reachability: ZZ is linearly spanned by single-qubit set on BOTH systems

ZZ new-frequency fraction

New-frequency content: MG > Hénon
(ordering robust across thresholds)

